Write a “Perspective” Song (with “pitch!”)

What character is singing the song?

Pick something your character has STRONG feelings about: maybe it’s something they LOVE or something they DON’T like.

Use your ideas to write the lyrics to a “Perspective” song. Write in more detail about how your character feels and why.

Now, pick a NEW character who feels a TOTALLY different way about the thing your first character has STRONG feelings about. Use another sheet to write how THEY feel about it. You can also decide what “pitch” the characters sing in, so they sound different from each other. For example, does one sing high and one sing low?
