

Who is your character?

What is a word to describe the character? (Tall? Weird? Proud?)

WAIT! Don't just tell us about the character with that describing word!

Show us the character with a "simile," where you compare the character to something...unexpected!

_____ was _____ like a:
(your character) (your describing word)

Or, here's a slightly different way to do it:

_____ was as _____ as a:
(your character) (your describing word)
